Angel Fashion Show: Uptown/Downtown

For nearly 30 years, Angel Charity for Children has been helping to improve the lives of kids in Southern Arizona. On Oct. 1 at The Westin La Paloma Resort & Spa, they take attendees on a journey through modern fashions suitable for downtown casual and uptown elegant. The runway show will feature members of the community sporting clothing and accessories from Piece by Piece, United Colors of Benetton, Brooks Brothers, Lucky Brand Jeans, SancSHOEary, and jewelry from Laurie and Lisa Designs. Hair and makeup for the show's models will be provided by Gadabout SalonSpas.

Designer-filled boutiques will be open after the show, and the event includes a luncheon and silent auction. The chairman is Kalyn Stith and Kelly Medvec is the vice chair.

Beneficiaries of this year's fundraising will be The Boys and Girls Clubs of Tucson, Children's Museum Tucson and Therapeutic Riding of Tucson (TROT). Angel Charity is supporting a full renovation of the Boys and Girls Clubs' Roy Drachman Clubhouse, which serves 1200 kids each year, and is projected to impact the lives of some 15,000 children in the next 10 years. At the Children's Museum Tucson, Angel Charity will fund the creation of Investigation Station, an interactive exhibit that focuses on Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM). For TROT, Angel Charity will help to expand the Tots Therapy Clinic, designed to provide early intervention therapies for special needs 2-6 year olds.
